

ASD Remote Sensing Course

Economy Group Training Sessions

(ask your ASD sales rep about other training options for dedicated application or guaranteed dates)

Comprehensive training for one and one half days (12 hours) at ASD. $950 (price includes group use of an ASD demo spectrometer, but attendees are encouraged to bring their own instrument if desired)

Additional attendees from the same organization, registering at the same time, are only $750.

What you will learn:

- ASD instrument design and characteristics
- ASD instrument setup and use of accessory equipment
- Use of RS³™ and ViewSpec™ Pro software to collect and post process spectra
- Collection design and field methods
- Incorporation of ASD spectra into programs such as ENVI®, and a quick introduction to using chemometrics analysis software
- Discussion of specific application considerations

Who Should Attend and Why:

- New ASD instrument users who wish to learn about the instrument design and operation
- ASD instrument users with questions about collecting spectra in the field

Your Instructors:

- Experienced ASD technical specialists in spectroscopy, and the use of ASD instrumentation for a wide range of applications
