

2018 ALEXANDER GOETZ INSTRUMENT SUPPORT PROGRAM

Do you need an ASD spectroradiometer for your field research?

ASD Inc., a PANalytical company's Alexander Goetz Instrument Support Program offers graduate students the temporary use of one of these high-performance spectroradiometers to pursue their research endeavors.

Photo of Omar Vergara Diaz, University of Barcelona, 2015 Goetz Program Awardee

FieldSpec® 4 (350-2500 nm)

- Field Spectrometry
- Ground Truthing
- Landscape Ecology and Ecology Research
- Soils Research
- Geology and Mineral Analysis
- Hyperspectral and Multispectral Image Analysis

FieldSpec HandHeld 2 (325-1075 nm)

- Forestry, Ecology and Plant Physiology Research
- Oceanography and Inland Water Bodies Research
- Crops Research
- Ice Characteristics Research and Snow Research
- Spectroradiometry of Illumination Sources

ASD Inc., a PANalytical company is recognized worldwide as a leader in providing high performance analytical instrumentation solutions for scientific markets. This will be the tenth year of the Alexander Goetz Instrument Support Program, founded in honor of the long-standing contribution of ASD's co-founder to the field of remote sensing.

PROPOSAL SUBMISSIONS DUE:

October 20, 2017

Check out www.asdi.com/service-and-support/goetz-instrument-support-program for details and submission guidelines.

CONTACT US

asdi.com | 1-303-444-6522 | 2555 55th Street, Suite 100, Boulder, CO 80301